Grace, mercy, and peace be unto you from God our Father, and Jesus our Lord and Savior.

Are you excited? If not, you should be. It's May! April showers bring May flowers. It's time to bloom and blossom. The beauty of Spring and God's delicate and intricate creativity will be displayed for all to see. The hope, faith and expectancy of seeds planted, and soil prepared will manifest in majestic fashion, that which has been anticipated. As we hustle and bustle through life, be intentional about taking time to observe the adorned canvas of God's creative hand. The physical reflects the spiritual realm.

Just as seeds and bulbs are blossoming and blooming, so should your spirit. God has planted spiritual seeds that have been cultivated and cared for by the master gardener. Now the anticipated time of blooming is here. The spiritual impartation will produce spiritual manifestation. This season will allow what He has placed into to be seen. The handiwork he has done on areas of your life that needed work. What you produce in this season will bring honor and glory to God.

As we travel this year bridge building road, let us not forget that bloom doesn't come without burdens. The flowers don't start as flowers, they start as seeds. The seeds then grow in environments that are conducive to their growth based on their genetic make-up. Gardeners know it takes aerating, fertilizing, watering, and a series of regular weeding and then pruning to produce a beautiful bloom. Life's mechanics include the burdens and blessings of the process in between the seed and the bloom. We will experience trials of diverse kinds, challenges on every hand, threats and attacks. Even Jesus declared that in this life we would have tribulations. Yet, these experiences help us to grow, blossom, bloom and thrive. They help us reach our peak beauty and anointed artistry. Do not interpret that time as evil.

The enemy wants us to misinterpret the moment and miss it all together. The Bible tells us to shun evil, but in doing so, we may shun what is good for us and necessary by thinking it is evil. These elements work for our good. Romans 5:3-4 says: “but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; ⁴And patience, experience; and experience, hope: ⁵And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.” Trust God through the tribulations to work and craft a spiritual work of art in you to be displayed to compel humanity, win souls, and build bridges. Be the reflection of Jesus Christ in the Earth.

As we speak of blooming and blossoming, in May we celebrate Mother's Day. Mothers are the blooms and blossoms of many of our lives. Their love and care are a clear picture of God's love for us. God, like an Eagle takes its wing to shield and warm her young, but then stirs it when time to fly. Special days like Mother's Day are another opportunity to love and appreciate those who make up you're your family and friends.

Finally, this month we celebrate Pentecost. This exciting day occurred after the ascension of Jesus into Heaven. The Holy Spirit came to where the apostles were, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. On that day Peter preached a sermon and three thousand souls were added to the Kingdom. This day is identified as the birth of the church. The Holy Spirit will not simply rest upon or visit God's people. The Holy Spirit now dwells within and gives the believer communion with and the conveyance of God's peace and power.

This month we celebrate the birth of New Hope! For 92 years New Hope has been a beacon light of hope in the city of Charlotte. Nearing a century in ministry, one must acknowledge and thank God for his protecting and providing hand. God has been good to New Hope and continues to bless us. I boldly declare that “this is miracle ground.” Happy Anniversary New Hope!

I am blessed to serve such an amazing congregation. I pray this month yields to you the beauty and bounty of Heaven.

Because of Christ,
