“Bridge Builders”

Message from the Pastor

Dr. Quientrell L. Burrell, Jr.

2024 Church Theme:
Building Bridges—
Building Lives”
Acts 17:23;
I Corinthians 9:16-23

Grace, mercy and peace be unto you from God our Father and Jesus our Lord and Savior.

Summer is winding down and Labor Day is a bitter reminder of that reality. Yet, temperatures are still reflective of summer days.

This month closes the third quarter of the year. Time is swiftly moving, but as one season comes to an end, another begins. Such is the kingdom of God. Seasons come and seasons go, indicating the swift transition times is filled with. Likewise, when one door closes another open. As the Earth continues to rotate, the world shifts, from changing tides, to changing moons. Maybe this is a good time to pay attention to the season you are in.

As the shift happens around us, God could very well be shifting things within us. There is great parallelism and symbolism between the spiritual and the natural, and through divine revelation we are able to make the connections that give us insight, clarity and direction. Let God be your guide in this season, and the spirit be your compass. While shifts are often accompanied by uncertainty, we are certain our Father orchestrates and oversees all. Joshua 1:9 says "Remember that I have commanded you to be determined and confident! Do not be afraid or discouraged, for I, the LORD your God, am with you wherever you go". Proverbs 3:5-6 says "trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not unto your own understanding, in all your ways submit to him, and he will direct your path."

In closing, I encourage you to register to vote, if you have not, and urge others to do the same. Our voice and vote matters. While the separation of church and state is often an excuse used to evade our political presence and responsibilities, God is Lord of all. Daniel 2:1 says "And He changeth the times and the seasons; He removeth kings and setteth up kings. He giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding." We who are believers must rest assured that all things will work together for good.

God's blessings be upon you in this season and always.

Because of Christ,

Pastor Q

Building Bridges—Building Lives

Building Bridges to Improve Relationships

Elder Josietta Anita Johnson

Building relationships between people who are different but yet the same is a "call" to break down the barriers that may exist between us to understand each other or behave well towards others. Bridges symbolize connection, inclusivity, reconciliation, unity and growth. As people of God, Christians (being Christ-like) we ought to reflect God's Love to bring healing to the body of Christ. Love and reconciliation reflects the character of God and enables us to demonstrate His love not just to "church folks" you associate with; but also displaying love to others outside of the church. People are hurting internally and put on a facade or a filter to conceal private despair. Bridges can be associated with God's Grace and his ability to close the gap between humanity and divinity. It is God's unmerited, undeserved favor, that cannot be earned. " For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is a gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast"... it is God's desire for us to be connected to him thru his Son. Jesus the Christ is the Way the Truth and the Light that provides a way for us to approach and commune with God the Father (Ephesians 2:13-19). Spiritual pride blinds us to our own faults and magnifies the faults of others. Be careful not to become so proud of your salvation. Humbly thank God for what he has done and encourage others who might be struggling in their faith. (1 Peter 5:6-7) The love of God is in us because God puts His love in our hearts when we accept Jesus as our Savior. But it needs to get through us in order for it to help anyone else. You never know what God has in store when He puts something in your heart to do—even when it may not make sense to you or when it seems silly or embarrassing. Decide to use the blessings in your life to be a blessing to others everywhere you go. You'll be amazed at the results, think about it and be creative. (Galatians 6:9-10) Your gift will make room for you—but your character will keep you in the room. Your relationships will shift your life to another level. It is your relationship with God that He Divinely and Sovereignly brings a spiritual shift into your life; so that "they" will know we are Christians by our love. They'll know by the way we walk—and by the way we talk. They will know you're a Bridge Builder by your fruit. (Galatians 5:21-22)

MORE GRACE TO YOU,
